THE REASON.

M. Halstead.—Democratic opposition to the Sherman law when it was passed was chiefly because it did not go far enough in the free colnage direction, and the bulk of Democratic activity for its repeal is for the same reason.

CHRAP MONEY

COMMAP MONEY.

Commercial Gestella—Monoy is cheap in London, while it is dear in New York. This-will cause many shillings and dollars to be realized. No operation is more attractive than borrowing in London at 2 per cent, and Ioaning in New York at 8 per cent. The harvest will be short, but it will pay largely while it last.

A BIG TASK FOR DEMOCRATS.

Emporia Republican,—"It took the isst Administration four years," says a Democratic paper, "to produce the present flanacial situation." If that is true, there is no hope of a change during the life of this Administration could not in a thousand years undo whaft took a Republican Administration four years to do.

Architect Clark, of the capitol and the work performed in extension of the cellar was defective in every respect. Architect Clark, of the capitol and building inspector's office, reappeared building inspector's office, reappeared testimony regarding the faulty methods of construction employed in the work being carried on under the building. Two of the men employed by Contractor Dant, Messrs, Scott and Parker, told how they worked in under the building. They did not think there was any danger of the building giving way, and they received no instructions either from Mr. Dant or from Col. Alineworth to be unusually upon. Both these man, however, admitted that they had bed no experience in the matter of underpinning a building. They admitted there should have been some effort made to support the floors of the tructor and Col. Alineworth knew what they were about and for that reason gave themselves no uneasiness with regard to the safety of the structure. If. It.
